Only Those Who Remained Faithful to "First Apostle" Were Present.

INTERMENT ON THURSDAY

Body Will Be Placed in White Hearse and Drawn by White

CHICAGO, March 12.—Funeral services were held last night for John Alexander Dowie by the little band of the faithful who have stood by him while thousands of the once great restoration rideuled and scorned.

Defining to scent, conclinatory conclinatory

storation ridiculed and scorned.

Refusing to accept conciliatory measures offered by Gladstone Dowle in the form of a share in the last rites over his father's body, Deacon J. W. Cutier and his six assistant deacons, chosen by Dowle as the ecclestastic rulers of his church in Zion City, held formal services, which, they said, were the only possible ceromonies of the Christian Catholic Apostolic Church in Zion.

Cutier had persuaded five of his authorized assistants, Deacons Crawford, Snelling, Chad, Goltzchalk and Braun, to held to their original stand. In spite of a drizzling night, Cutier's residence to hold to their original stand. In spiteof a drizzling night, Cutler's residence was crowded; mourners finding places on stairs and window sills. Under these conditions, with every person present an ardent follower of the "First Apostic." in life and death, many of whom had been with him from the founding of the church, the service had a deep religious tone that made it unusually impressive.

Talked in His Sleep

Deacons Samuel Chad and B. F. Morris, who were with Dowle the night he died, were called upon to relate incidents of those hours. Deacon Morris ris, who were with Dowle the night he died, were called upon to relate incidents of those hours. Deacon Morris denied the "First Apostle" was delirious at any time. He said he was merely "talking in his sleep, as he had done every night for weeks," and that fever or any of the symptoms of delirium failed to appear.

The meeting closed with declarations from almost every one present that they would remain in the present body until Dowle's will reveals the ope he chose as his successor. Then they will fleck to his support. Many expressed the belief that this will be Overseer Bryant, now in South Africa.

Arrangements for final services on Thursday continue to show a conciliatory spirit. Overseer William H. Piper, head of the faction in Chicago that revolted from Voliva after his victory, will be asked to stimpte the scheders. head of the faction in Chicago that revolted from Voiva after his victory, will be asked to sit upon the tabernacle platform with Deacon Sprecher, head of the Chicago party remaining true to Dowle. The eulogy will be delivered by Judge V. V. Banes, of the Voliva faction. For the funeral a large white hearse will be brought from Kenosha, the coffin will be white and the hearse will be drawn by white horses. The collin will be sealed hermetically and burled in a stone vault.

PITTSBURG, PA., March 12.—A joke, terrible in its result, was played by workmen employed in the McKee's Rocks plant of the Pressed Steel Car Company early this morning. The victim is dead, having been burnd to a crisp, and the joker is being eagerly sought by the county authorities.

John Douidi, a laborer employed in the plant, was snatching a few minutes' sleep at 4:30 o'clock this morning, and to keep warm was lying in front of a furnace.

Brehm Denies Charge-Lear Was a Resident of Portsmouth, Va.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BALTIMORE, MD., March 12,—
Charged with the murder of C. E.

Churged with the murder of C. E. Lear, of No. 69 Congress Street, Portsmouth, Va., Charles Brehm, of Highlandtown, a suburb of Baltimore, was to-day committed to the Baltimore county jail for the Criminal Court by Justice Dunnigai, of Highlandtown. The alleged murder was committed February 16th, and Lear's body has been dissected at one of the local medical colleges.

Lear was found lying on the pavement by a policeman and was taken to the Canton Police Station, where a coroner's jury decided that death was due to natural causes. Interest in the case waned until last night, when Patrolman Spann learned that a man had been seen to strike Lear on the head while the latter was intoxicated. Following out the rumor, Patrolman Spann arrested Brehm, who is fortyfive yoars old and married. Brehm denied all knowledge of Lear, and safe he was drunk on the night of the alleged assault, but saveral witnesses. he was drunk on the night of the alleged assault, but several witnesses testified that they saw Brehm strike

Jamestown. plant of the Pressed Steel Car-Company early this morning. The victim is dead, having been burnd to a crisp, and the joker is being eagerly sought by the county authorities.

John Douidi, a laborer employed in the plant, was snatching a few minutes sleep at 4:30 o'clock this morning, and to keep warm was lying in front of a furnace.

A craneman spled the sleeper, and thought it would be a great joke to pour oll on him. He took several other workmen into the scheme, and they secured a five-gallon can of behzine.

Taking the can upon the traveling crane with him, the, "joker" waited until he was over the prostrate Douidi, and then poured the contents on him.

The benzine ignited as soon as the fumes came in contact with the furnace in front of which Douidi was lying, and in an instant he was enveloped in flames. The other workmen made every effort to save him; but by the time the fire was extinguished his body was burned to a crisp, and he died almost instantly.

Rockefeller Says Goss "Faked" Him Out of $265,000 by "Salted" Mine.

"Salted" Mine.

ST. LOUIS, March 12.—Frank Rocketelier, of Cleveland, O., a brother of John D. Rockefeller, resumed the witness stand to-day in his sult against Henry Coss for the restitution of $285.

900 spent by Rockefeller for a zinomine in Southwest Missouri.

Mr. Rockefeller said that he inspected the mine previous to buying it. "I went down in a shaft," he said, "and my attention was constantly called to bodies of ore. In the centre room of the mine was a pillar that appeared to be practically solid zine ore. The walls of the room had the same appearance. The lights carried by the party made it look like one great crystal palace. The floor seemed to be of solid ore."

Rockefeller alleges that he was induced through misrepresentations to buy the mine, and will endeavor to show that the "crystal palace" effects witnessed by him did not faithfully portray the worth of the deposit ore. He said he paid $200,000 for the mine and spont $65,000 in improvements.
